Terms of participation

- You do not need to be a Municipal Libraries Network cardholder to take part in the Q&A session with guest authors.
- You may ask your question in Catalan, Spanish or English.
- Questions should be on the subject of the author's work, his or her professional career, literature and/or reading in general.
- Questions should be identified with your first name, and no other personal details.
- Questions should be no longer than 100 words and should be worded clearly.
- Questions should be worded in polite terms and show respect for the author and other users. Questions regarding the author's private life will not be accepted, nor those containing protests, advertising, spam, etc.
- All questions will be collected by the interview moderator, and will therefore not be shown automatically.
- To simplify the interview, the moderator will group repeated questions or those on similar topics. Likewise, the organisers reserve the right to eliminate inappropriate questions or those that do not meet these terms of participation.
- Having asked your question, you will not receive any confirmation of its publication. Thank you for taking part!
